

Talented accessory designer required

(Starting salary at 30 000 dollars / year)

Marco roho is a social brand that offers grandmothers a job by selling accessories made by them and donates continuously some of the revenues to charities. Our company is looking to recruit a talented and ambitious accessory designer who will work with us as a permanent employee.

Responsibilities:

- Get charge of the design of bracelets with our experienced design team. New designs are needed for every ss and fw seasons.
- Instruct newly working grandmothers how to make bracelets and what is the value of Marco roho.
- For grandmothers who have mobility difficulties, you'll have to go to their houses to give them the materials needed and to pick up the accessories after they made them.
- Finish the making of the accessories to deliver them to customers after their packing.

Requirements for the job:

- Abilities to manage time to finish the makings in time.
- Have considerations for others and be ready to devote your time to others.
- Be dexterous in making accessories.
- Have a good sense of design.
- A high school student or more older
- Full time worker

If you want to work with us, send your CV and a sketch of 2 bracelets fitting at the theme "spring" at contact@rvfin.kr up to 28th July 2018.
